

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 8/16/76

The following recording was made on August 10, 1976, on Smithfield St., in Pittsburgh, Pa., in the vicinity of the Victory Bar.

This recording was made through the use of a recorder on the person of CLARENCE MILLER who had given verbal permission for use of same:

CLARENCE MILLER: "I got to go in here. I got to see Murovich."

THADDEUS DEDO: "Oh, I gotta go somewhere anyway."

MILLER: "Oh."

DEDO: "Just a minute. It's only gonna take a minute."

MILLER: "I gotta see Murovich."

DEDO: "There's no one there. It's closed. I just tried the door."

MILLER: "Yeah, I gotta, I, I, I."

DEDO: "Why go in there?"

MILLER: "Huh?"

DEDO: "It's locked."

MILLER: "I know, I gotta ring the bell. I got to go to Murovich's."

DEDO: "Anyway, uh, don't tell no one, here's what I got. You are here- by to appear at United States District Court, okay? It's a subpoena to testify before a Grand Jury."

Interviewed on 8/10/76 at Pittsburgh, Pa. File # Pittsburgh 87-18526
 by SAs T.A. MEEK and J. GARY BOUTWELL/dao Date dictated 8/11/76

MILLER: "Well, just tell them the truth, that's all, just tell, just tell tell them the truth."

DEDO: "I don't know anything."

MILLER: "You know, you know, tell them the truth."

DEDO: "I don't know anything, how can I tell them anything? If I tell them anything, it'd be a lie, I don't know anything."

MILLER: "Ted, come on now. You going to have a drink or what?"

DEDO: "No, uh, in fact I was wondering if you heard, if you got, they won't tell me what it is, I thought maybe you know."

MILLER: "I don't know nothing."

DEDO: "You didn't get no subpoena?"

MILLER: "No."

DEDO: "Well, I'll have my attorney call. Well, I'll see you in Court."
